Trio of Agua Frescas

Makes 4 Drinks of Each Flavor
12 Drinks Total

PREP TIME: 15 minutes

ACTIVE TIME: 10 minutes

TOTAL TIME: 2 hours (includes chilling time)

EASY

We first discovered these refreshing drinks in Mexico, where they're as ubiquitous as soda is in the US. The mango and watermelon flavors are more traditional; my cucumber-matcha version is a refreshing, not-too-sweet pick-me-up.

For the watermelon agua fresca

- 2 cups cubed seedless watermelon
- 1 1/2 cups water
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 2 tablespoons fresh lime juice

For the mango agua fresca

- 1 cup cubed mango
- 2 1/4 cups water
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 2 tablespoons fresh lime juice

For the cucumber-matcha agua fresca

- 2 cups cubed peeled English cucumber (about 1 medium)
- 2 teaspoons matcha powder
- 1 1/2 cups water
- 3 tablespoons sugar
- 2 tablespoons fresh lime juice
- Ice

For each agua fresca, combine all the ingredients in a blender and blend until smooth. You should have about 3 cups of each flavor. Chill for at least 1 hour 30 minutes, or up to 3 days, covered, before serving over ice.

Party Tip: Fill your piñata with authentic Mexican candy and small toys.
